

I oppose allowing greater ownership and control of our media by a relative few. It takes away the rights of citizens to hear diverse views. It is impacting the very nature of open airways for the public's benefit, and runs contrary to the intended direction of the FCC when established. Just as our Constitution is maintained, so our right to a broad range of information must be maintained.